FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Good luck to our 39 Country Gold students competing today and tomorrow in the hockey, soccer, football and netball carnivals in Launceston. Thank you to Mrs Irwin, Miss Carter and Mr Hyland who have coached the students pre carnival and will coach them during the tournaments.

SHS productions
Students in Grades 5 and 6 attended the SHS production, ‘Popstars’ yesterday. They witnessed past students on the stage and were very positive about the production when they returned to school. Congratulations to SHS on such a magnificent School Production!

Parent satisfaction survey
Thank you to all randomly sampled parents who have taken the time to complete the on-line survey. If you haven’t gotten around to it yet, tomorrow is your last opportunity. We would really appreciate you taking the 10 minutes to complete it if at all possible. Students across Grade 5 and 6 and staff have completed their surveys this week as well. The data obtained from the surveys will help us draft our next Strategic and Operational School Plans.

Becoming Famous
Parents and families are invited to attend the 9th Annual Becoming Famous Exhibition, which showcases artwork from students across NE Schools. The opening is today at 4:30pm. If you can’t make it don’t panic as the work will be on display in the Art Gallery during the school holidays. Thank you to Mrs J van den Bosch for framing and arranging our students work and congratulations to students who had their artwork chosen!
